Welcome to Sterling Baskets are coming!

The Promotion committee is working hard to put together baskets full of information and fun stuff for new Sterling residents. I have been asked about something like this many times, and it is soon to become a reality.

If you are a Main Street Sterling member and your business would like to have business cards, coupons or any other information included please let me know!

Promotion committee members will be collecting these items in the next few weeks.

Fire and Smoke BBQ Cook-Off

Thanks to our wonderful volunteers and beautiful weather, Warrior Fest and the BBQ Cook-Off were a huge success. We had 7 teams enter the cook-off, with a total of 15 food entries. Around 120 people sampled the BBQ and voted for their favorite.

Dave Reed won the chicken category, Z & G BBQ (Jonathan Zimmerman and Fred Gilmore) took first place in the pork and beans categories, and Royal BBQ (Josh Gilmore, Bryan Riggs, and Luke Boltz) took top honors in the brisket and ribs categories as well as the grand prize as overall favorite. Thank you to all who participated.

All the meat was provided for the competitors thanks to our sponsors; BBH Enterprises, Schmidt Cattle Company, Nutri-Tech, Sterling Services, and Dillons. Reed Pharmacy sponsored the overall favorite cash prize. Thank you to these companies for making this event possible!

Over 20 booths were set up along Broadway as part of Warrior Fest, with a variety of information, food and items for sale. The Sterling College sports teams had golf, soccer, and basketball games for kids to participate in. It was a great day to get our college students involved in downtown Sterling

Christmas Time Is Right Around the Corner

Space permitting, the Main Street Mall, Christmas Bake Off & Sale, and Main Street Train Station will all be back this year! We are running out of vacant buildings in downtown. A good problem to have, but doesn't leave too many options for extra events at Christmas.

The Promotion Committee will be having a Christmas window display contest this year so start planning your displays for those downtown windows! Stay tuned for more news on Christmas activities.

Farmer's Market Season is Over

The Market will be back in the Spring. A very BIG thank you goes out to Herb Albertson and his son Ben. They gave countless hours of their time to the Market this year. We appreciate their help in making the Farmer's Market a success.

As you plan your gardens in the spring, keep the farmer's market in mind. We need vendors to make the market successful!

Have a great month!
